THE END OF FREE SPEECH IN IRELAND

JOHN WATERS ON THE NEW 'HATE' BILL

'VACCINE' DEATHS SOAR

by GEMMA O'DOHERTY

The devastating death toll from Covid vaccines is rising across Ireland as hospital emergency departments witness wide scale injuries and more health whistleblowers begin to emerge. After a lull in 2020, the biggest nursing union in the country, the INMO, has admitted that hospital overcrowding is currently at its worst since the so-called 'pandemic' began.

As the government, HSE and media struggle to keep a lid on the horrific accounts of sudden deaths, blood clotting, strokes, heart attacks, paralysis, eye damage and convulsions brought on by the experimental gene-changing injections, anecdotal evidence of fatalities and injuries is spreading throughout the country and convincing many Irish people to reject the shot.

Efforts by state authorities to silence families of victims and healthcare workers are also coming to light. Medics and healthcare workers who attempt to speak out about the risks of the vaccine say they are threatened, demoted, and told to go to stay silent or go on leave. They are also being told to stay away from work if they have not received the jab.

A consultant at St Vincent's Private Hospital in Dublin was told to go on leave and take a psychological assessment after he questioned the rollout of the vaccine.

The HPRA (Health Products Regulatory Authority) which is responsible for ensuring that vaccines in Ireland are safe has acknowledged more than 8000 reports of injuries and 56 deaths in the country so far.

However these figures are thought to be widely underestimated when compared to the current death toll in the EU which now stands at more than 14,000 people and in excess of one million injuries. These are the official EMA (European Medicines Agency) figures. The actual number of vaccine deaths across Europe is thought to be much higher.

Several doctors in Ireland have died recently, just weeks after taking the vaccine. One well-known surgeon in good health passed away shortly after his second dose. Days earlier he had been running a busy clinic at his large hospital. Another doctor collapsed after the injection and said he knew the vaccine had caused it and that he regretted taking it.

Many other healthcare workers, frontline staff and retail workers who say they are being coerced to take it are now on sick leave. Beaumont Hospital - the country's main neurological centre - has seen growing dissent and anger among staff who are not willing to take the vaccine but say they are being pressurised by management.

In one large Dublin supermarket, a dozen staff were unable to report to work, several claiming the vaccine had left them unwell. There are also growing reports of miscarriages among pregnant women. In one case, a young doctor lost one of her unborn twins.

The vaccines were granted emergency use by the EMA, which is led by Dublin pharmacist Emer Cooke, even though they do not prevent transmission of the SARS CoV2 COVID-19 virus.

The Pfizer trials will not be complete until January 2023. The same company has a notorious criminal record and was forced to pay the biggest fine in history ($2.3bn) for lying about its drugs and bribing doctors to promote them.

Ms Cooke is one of several Irish orchestrators of the global vaccine rollout. Her future hangs in the balance as Nuremberg-style trials for those involved in this crime against humanity become more likely with every passing day.

"Nothing like this has ever happened before in Ireland. It's absolutely horrific," said one HSE staff member.

"We're witnessing a genocide. It's patently clear. The number of injuries appearing and people dying days and weeks after the vaccine is horrific. And the authorities turn a blind eye. They are all in on it. Doctors, nurses, the Gardai, ambulance staff. They stay silent. They can never say they did not know. They know exactly what they are doing. One day, they will all go to jail for mass murder. Even the Nazis would be taken aback at this level of evil."

GENOCIDE: THE OFFICIAL VACCINE DEATH TOLL

(Up To May 22, 2021)

12,184 deaths and 1,196,190 injuries following injections of four experimental COVID-19 shots

(Moderna, Pfizer-BioNTech; AstraZeneca and Johnson & Johnson's Janssen)

Serious injuries are of the order of 604,744 (more than 50% of total injuries) The Pfizer-BioNTech mRNA gene-edited vaccine has resulted in the largest number of fatalities with 5,961 deaths and 452,779 injuries.

THERE WAS NO PANDEMIC

Newly released CSO (Central Statistics Office) figures show that deaths in 2020 were in line with other years, showing just a 2% increase compared to 2019.

Last year, 31,765 deaths were registered in Ireland, an increase of just 631 on 2019. The majority of deaths were caused by cancer with just 5% registered as COVID-19 although this figure is expected to be revised downwards significantly in the coming months given the large number of patients who died as a result of underlying conditions and not the virus.

Of the 1,672 Covid deaths, more than 80% were among elderly people aged over 75 and at normal life expectancy.

A Beginner's Guide To The UN New World Order

And how it will turn your life upside down

by Robert Pye

Even though the term New World Order [NWO] has been popping up in the media every now and then for over 30 years, few people could tell you what it actually means.

Perhaps the most visible expression of the NWO is the United Nations. It was founded in 1945 to “unite nations”. We are asked to believe this has a benign purpose, but think about it. If all nations are “united” then independent sovereign nations will cease to exist.

We would end up ultimately under the control of a One World Government with power further and further removed from individual citizens.

Bit by bit the UN has been taking over nation-state activities and setting guidelines for national policy which were formerly the sole prerogative of each individual nation. The European Union is nothing but a “UN” for Europe. Our freedoms are being gradually swallowed up by the anonymous, unelected groups who control the UN and the EU.

In the past year we have seen another international agency – the World Health Organisation – effectively dictate to the Irish people the steps they should take to handle a ‘pandemic’. In fact, it was the WHO which set the entire crisis in motion. If the WHO did not exist, we would have had a normal flu epidemic in March/April 2020, no lockdowns, no masks, no social distancing, and – most important of all – no vaccines.

The New World Order is a blanket term for the various international bodies and multi-national corporations which are taking over our country and, right before our eyes, installing a dictatorship. If this sounds to you like a Marxist take-over, you are right!

After World War Two, the people behind international Marxism decided that war and conflict were a clumsy and haphazard way to create a Communist world government. Their agents removed their Communist badges and pretended instead to be one of us. They infiltrated governments, the public service, churches, the media, cultural institutions, the police, the judiciary, and third level education over a period of several decades. This is why virtually every government in the world today is Communist. They pretend to be “democratic” and yet their policies are consistently socialist, communitarian, UN-directed, EU-driven, and designed to funnel more and more national wealth into the pockets of the ruling elite. You see, Communism has nothing to do with the elevation of the little man. Rather it is a system designed to drag everyone down to the same level of enslavement.

Who is controlling all of this?

Well, it can only be those who control the vast financial resources that are needed to keep it running smoothly over several generations. Some critics have long claimed that the families which run the international banking system are the ones who are really running the world. And they are right!

This elite group of ultra-wealthy families are no longer content to own half of the world's wealth. They now want to own the other half as well. We can see this happening as Amazon gobbles up the trade that was once shared among thousands of family-run small businesses. Those businesses are being wiped out and millions of people made redundant. This process is ongoing across all sectors. A small number of mega-corporations are taking over and imposing their own rules. The little man is being trod down and phased out.

That little man (or woman) is you.

The elite are pressing very hard at this time to wipe out as many businesses as they can. The Covid non-pandemic is a central part of this plan. Lockdowns destroy personal wealth and break up communities. Government-imposed regulations – supervised on a global basis by the UN/WHO – ensure that mass resistance is extremely difficult to organise. The same elite group also control the media, so the public is continually being fed information which makes them believe “normality” is just around the corner. All they have to do is obey their government's dictatorial directives! Alas, most members of the public swallow this insane propaganda and fail to see where it is all leading.

The NWO makes use of subversive slogans and phony threats to manipulate the public. Many reputable scientists have shown conclusively that manmade global warming is a hoax, an outrageous deception designed to enable a “world authority” to impose restrictive rules and regulations on advanced industrial economies. The term “sustainable development” is the magical mantra that these sorcerers are using to secure control over all human activity. Who decides what is “sustainable”? They do, of course. Wake up, people: your freedoms are being eaten away by the countless restrictions imposed by the New World Order.

What will the NWO look like when its fully in place? If you are squeamish, stop reading at this point.

One of the leading spokesmen for the New World Order is Klaus Schwab, head of the World Economic Forum. On his WEF website he boasts, “You will own nothing and you'll be happy.” And he means it! The first part is true, you will own nothing. They are planning to effect a huge transfer of wealth by deliberately crashing the international banking system, an event they like to dub ‘The Great Reset’. It will seem like an unfortunate accident, the result of a massive debt overhang toppling from the shelves all at once. This will be triggered, very likely, by a lethal cyber attack on key institutions.

Unemployment will rocket. In the chaos that follows, where savings are wiped out, pensions disappear, companies collapse, public utilities falter, and basic services grind to a halt, the public will accept whatever “solution” the bigwigs offer. According to the collapse scenarios sketched out in various ‘insider’ reports, such as those published by the Rockefeller Foundation, the governments of the world will provide their citizens with a “Universal Basic Income” (UBI) – a monthly subsistence allowance, paid (and monitored) electronically. They will also agree to cancel all personal debt but only on condition that legal title to all private

HOW TO FIGHT BACK:

-  Do everything you can to reduce your dependence on banks and the state
-  Shop in small Irish businesses and groceries and avoid foreign globalist chains
-  Form small likeminded groups in your parish and educate others about the NWO
-  Use cash
-  Avoid use of smart phones and apps which are key to 5g surveillance state
-  Homeschool to avoid Marxist indoctrination in schools
-  Grow your own food

property – notably one's house and car – is transferred to the state.

The impoverished masses – whom they dub ‘the herd’ – will be nothing more than hapless tenants, tagged and tracked electronically, in a neo-feudal colonial society.

The New World Order involves a complete and utter rejection of Biblical values. As such it is the culmination of a dark rebellion which began a long time ago and which, in its final phase, will impact horrifically on the world as a whole.

The Speech Haters

John Waters on the new Hate Crime bill, a charter for busybodies and ideological agitators to silence those who say things they disagree with Over 20 years ago, I coined the term ‘Omnipotent Victim’ to describe an emerging phenomenon I had observed at work specifically in the operation of family law courts but also more generally in areas governed by the misleadingly innocuous-sounding concept of political correctness (PC). The idea was that, if someone qualified in one or more respects under a list of protected categories, it was impossible to win against them — no matter what the facts or circumstances — in any context in which State or media actors were involved.

Back then I predicted, the greatest tyranny would be the spectre of absolute power in the hands of the apparently defenceless victim: ‘We stand on the threshold of an era when, by virtue of being black, female, or the claimed sufferer of abuse or deprivation, the Omnipotent Victim will be set beyond

This country of ours is no sand bank, thrown up by some recent caprice of earth. It is an ancient land, honoured in its archives of civilisation, traceable into antiquity by its piety, its valour, and its sufferings. Every great European race has sent its stream to the river of Irish mind. Long wars, vast organisations, subtle codes, beacon crimes, leading virtues, and self-mighty men were here. If we live influenced by wind and sun and tree, and not by the passions and deeds of the past, we are a thrifless and a hopeless people.’

Thomas Davis

Omnipotent Victim, a programme for the marginalisation and silencing of the mainstream indigenous population, who will, if this Bill becomes law, become permanently prohibited — under pain of imprisonment — from defending their culture, their values, their children’s birthright, their country, their home.

Normally, laws come into being because of some need emanating from the population, but this is true in this instance in only the narrowest of sense. This law does not arise from any need of the Irish public, even widely defined, but out of the dim depths of political corruption and opportunism, being designed to protect from public comment or criticism the ideologies now festering in the undergrowth of our public life and in particular the unlawful and undemocratic practices that have arisen around mass migration into Ireland over the past two decades.

This Bill seems to be clumsily constructed, contradictory and vague, but this is an exercise in misdirection. It has the appearance of being thrown together, but it is actually cunningly contrived to achieve a nefarious purpose: the unleashing of a legal time bomb that may in due course prohibit just about everything worth saying. It has been drafted by the Department of Justice, clearly with the enthusiastic assistance of a vast array of NGOs, existing and continuing to operate off public funds allocated to the migrant sector.

It was signalled first a few years back by politicians persistently bemoaning the activities of the ‘far right’, a completely fictional entity invented by politicians for the purposes of creating a bogeyman for the moment that is now upon us.

The objective of hate speech laws, declared the 2019 consultation document, is to ‘support a safe, fair and inclusive society’. But it does not appear to have been considered that a safe, fair and inclusive society might not be possible if people are forbidden to speak their minds. There is no attempt to define what ‘inclusive’ means. Does Irish society have an obligation to include anyone who arrives here, no matter the reason or pretext? It does not appear to have occurred to those involved that one way of making a society unsafe is to impose upon it hundreds of thousands of alien persons with no loyalty to the host people or their culture.

We were told that ‘tolerance and respect for the equal dignity for all human beings is fundamental to Ireland’s identity as a democratic, pluralistic society.’ But nobody had ever asked the Irish people how ‘pluralist’ they wished their society to become. And when did this become a matter of ‘identity’? Who decided this? What does it mean? Is it possible for a society imposing totalitarian controls on freedom of speech to remain ‘inclusive’, ‘fair’ or even particularly ‘pluralist’? Surely the fairest and most pluralist society is one in which everyone is able to say exactly what they think and believe?

The sole purpose of this ‘hate speech’ legislation is not to protect minority groups or ethnicities, but to insulate the government/political class from any criticism or questioning about its policies in certain areas, in particular — here — the policy of imposing on the Irish population countless unknown migrants with no love of or loyalty to Ireland.

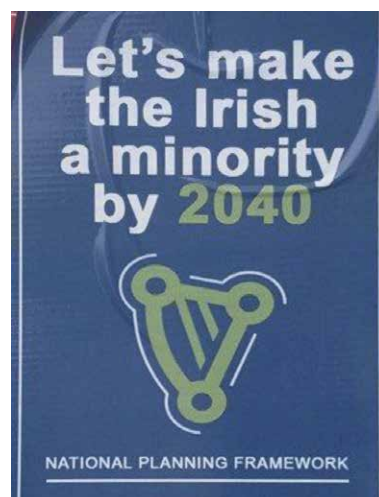

‘Hate speech laws’ are the enforcement arm of political correctness, which is the statute of Cultural Marxism. There are many problematic elements within this, but the most urgently so are the trans movement, which promises to do unspeakable harm — spiritual, mental and physical — to the coming generations of young people, and mass inward migration, which threatens to destroy the sovereignty and capacity for self-realisation of the Irish people within a few decades unless something is done to bring these drifts to a halt.

To oppose mass, uncontrolled inward migration, unleashed by politicians who never sought a mandate for it, and imposed on existing communities who have spent sweat and blood in building up a safe home for their children, is not the same as opposing immigration. People have always come to Ireland and have invariably been welcomed. Neither ethnicity nor colour has been an issue for most people. We welcome people who come to our country in respect and hope, seeking to build a life for themselves citing facts does not meet their need to create bogeymen - the ‘far right’, ‘white supremacists’, ‘racists’, all imported concepts which have no currency here other than a mendacious one. The ‘hate speech laws’ are their way of bringing things to a new and final level: If this Bill becomes law, there will in future be no means of resisting what is planned for our country; and then, in due course, all its people will have cause in time to mourn the inevitable consequences of that.

It has the potential to impose a terminal chill on public dissent or debate on just about anything of significance relating to the agendas currently justice, morality, fairness and the law, and anyone she accuses will be automatically convicted. In this future, if you come into conflict with someone whom our various ideologies designate as victim, by virtue of sex, race or origin, you had better have your affairs in order in advance of the hearing. Victims are never guilty of anything, and those they accuse never innocent.’

This prediction achieves its fullest flowering in the just-published Criminal Justice (Hate Crime) Bill 2021, long heralded as the imminent introduction of ‘hate speech laws’.

It is not an exaggeration to say that this Bill is perhaps the most radical and the most momentous ever introduced into our country in this state of — whatever it might be called, that might once have been mistaken for freedom. This, finally, is the legal charter of the

COVID-19 INJECTIONS THE FACTS

COVID-19 INJECTIONS ARE NOT SAFETY TESTED

Vaccines usually take between five and ten years to develop and undergo safety trials. Covid injections have been rushed to market in less than a year. There is NO scientific evidence that they are safe, prevent infection or give any immunity against Coronavirus.

Thousands of people around the world, including in Ireland, have suffered severe reactions to Covid injections such as paralysis, blindness and other symptoms far worse than the Coronavirus, which has a recovery rate of more than 99%. These untested products may also cause brain disorders like Alzheimer's in later life and could even alter your unique DNA.

The media is concealing the risks of these cash-cow drugs because, like the medical profession, they receive huge funding from the HSE and other sources to promote them. Big Pharma make billions from vaccines.

NO CORONAVIRUS VACCINE HAS BEEN SAFELY DEVELOPED

For years, scientists have tried but failed to develop a vaccine for Coronavirus (which is medically defined as the Common Cold). In trials, animals became more susceptible to lung conditions. Many died when they came in contact with the infection in the wild.

Covid injections are not vaccines. They use technology which has never been approved for human use before. Vaccines typically contain live virus to provoke an immune reaction. But the Covid version carry synthetic genetic material called mRNA (messenger Ribonucleic Acid) which supposedly tricks the cells into producing viral proteins themselves and triggering an immune response

This process is still purely experimental and a flagrant breach of the Nuremberg Code, which was established after WW2 to ensure Nazi policies of forced sterilisation and human experiments would never be repeated.

IF YOU'RE INJURED, YOU'RE ON YOUR OWN

Vaccine makers are NOT held liable if you're injured by their product. No other companies are given this sort of immunity. If you are paralysed, you will not receive compensation.

You wouldn't buy a car without a guarantee. Why would you allow a dysfunctional health service with a dismal track record to inject synthetic untested substances into your cells without any comeback if things go wrong?

Drug companies whose products are indemnified are much less likely to prioritise safety. Ask your GP or nurse to confirm in writing that Covid injections are safe and effective. They can't because they have no proof as trials will not be completed for years.

THE HSE HAS LIED ABOUT THE DANGERS OF OTHER VACCINES

In 2009, the HSE bought the Pandemrix vaccine for swine flu, even though they knew it was dangerous. Other countries abandoned the vaccine but the Irish government shielded the manufacturer GSK from liability and gave it to the Irish people.

The vaccine can cause narcolepsy, a devastating sleep disorder which has destroyed the lives of thousands of people. More than 80 Irish people have been forced to fight the state in tortuous legal actions while coping with their long-term brain injury.

The HPV vaccine has hurt hundreds of teenage girls in Ireland, leaving some with brain disorders and limb dysfunction. It contains aluminium and is linked to low fertility and an increased risk of cancer. Simon Harris told those who raise safety concerns to 'butt out' while the HSE called them 'emotional terrorists'.
