Indulgences¹⁷

His Holiness, Pope Pius IX., by a decree of the Sacred Congregation of Rites, August 8, 1851, granted to all the faithful, every time that, with at least contrite heart and devotion, they shall say this chaplet:

AN INDULGENCE OF SEVEN YEARS AND SEVEN QUARANTINES.

AN INDULGENCE OF ONE HUNDRED DAYS, every day, to any one who shall carry this chaplet about him, or kiss the medal, representing the Holy Angels, appended to it.

A PLENARY INDULGENCE, once a month, to all who shall say this chaplet every day, on the day when, being truly penitent, after Confession and Communion, they shall pray for the triumph of holy Mother Church, and for the welfare of the Sovereign Pontiff.

A PLENARY INDULGENCE, on the conditions given above, on:

The Feast of the Apparition of Saint Michael, May 8¹⁸.

The Dedication of Saint Michael, September 29.

Saint Gabriel the Archangel, March 18.

Saint Raphael the Archangel, October 24.

Holy Angel Guardians, October 2.

To gain these indulgences, a chaplet must be used, consisting of the Our Father, nine times, with the Hail Mary, three times after each Our Father, and the Our Father, four times at the end, saying, at the same time, in order, the corresponding salutations, with the antiphon and prayer, at the end. These chaplets, by order of his Holiness, February 4, 1877, must be blessed by a priest who has from the Holy See the general faculty of blessing beads, medals, etc. (The Raccolta, Maryland, 1878, pp. 301–306)

Our Most Holy Pope Pius IX declared that both plenary and partial indulgences by the decree of the Congregation of Sacred Rites on August 8, 1851, as granted in prayers, could be applied even to souls detained in purgatory.

The present decree is valid forever without an other publication.

Given at Rome from the Secretariat of the Sacred Congregation of Indulgences. F. C. Asquinius Pref.; A Colombo Secr. (From the audience with the Most Holy Father, on 24th of November, 1851.)
